SEPTEMBER 7, 1976 . . .

Where did summer go?
Have swimming, skiing,
tubing, water-bogganing,
vacations, horseback riding, catching some rays, and just plain sleeping late gone for good?

Yet look at what's ahead . . .
Going to games, pep rallies,
talking to everybody in the halls, struggling through exams and term papers, dances, trying to do the bump and the hustle, coke adds life, pizza, hamburgers, french fries, riding around, snoballs,
fourth period, assemblies, parties,
making friends, preparing . . .

CARTER-FORD DEBATE

Although Gerald Ford won Bearden's mock presidential election, Jimmy Carter won the national election on November 2, 1976. BHS students held different opinions of what they expected from President Carter in the next four years:

Better housing, better education, and a billion dollar increase in the peanut industry ... Otto Slater.
Very good change — Mondale's the best part in ticket .... anonymous.
A lot more hoedowns ... Emily Norman.
Oh gosh!!! ... Angie Rockwell.
Everything will go to peanuts ... Cary Lister.
A perfect country because he thinks he is ... Jerry Elliot.
A change for the better ... Doug Simpson.
Less unemployment ... Mrs. Todd.
A lot of spending ... David Little.
He's against nuclear energy — that's bad .... Kathy Kinney.
A lot more than I can expect from Ford ... James Acuff.
Fried chicken and grits ... John Holleman.
A lot of great changes ... Joni Tucker.
Confusion ... Kendall Maxwell.
A lot of peanut butter ....Tim Hubbard

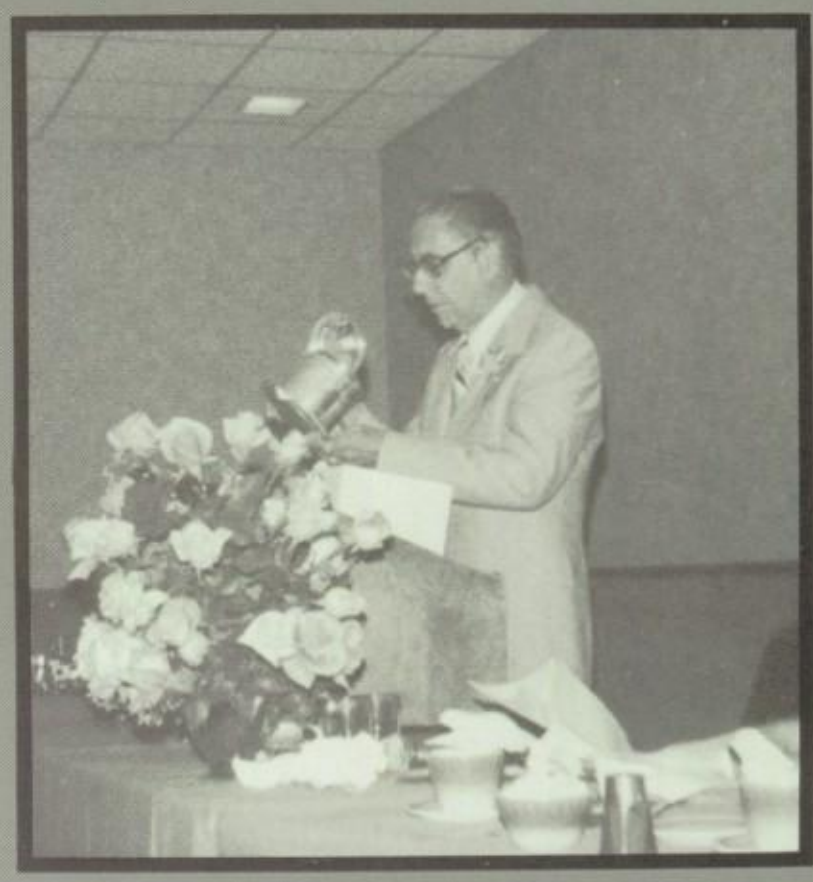
William R. Turner Retires ...

Mr. William R. Turner became the first principal of Bearden High School in the fall of 1948 and served as principal until his retirement in June, 1976. Under his leadership, Bearden grew into a school of over 1,000 students — a school that can best be described as GREAT. The 1977 Echo staff asked Mr. Turner how he was enjoying retirement. He responded with the following letter:



First, let me say that I am thoroughly enjoying retirement. It is great to be your own complete boss without the responsibilities of the principal of a large school like Bearden — even though I enjoyed my twenty-seven years there very much.

So far I have not found any problem about having enough to do. During the summer months I kept busy keeping my yard work and garden. We could not travel this summer due to the fact my wife's mother became critically ill and passed away in early August. This fall I have been doing the usual household chores and yardwork. We have made several short trips within the local area and some trips to Middle Tennessee to see relatives.

I have time now to do so many things — such as re-finishing some antique pieces, working with my wife to have a garage sale during the month of October, reading, visiting people we know in the hospital, helping with West Knoxville Kiwanis projects, etc.

Of course, I miss being at school working with Bearden High School's excellent faculty and being among you high school students. However, it is a good feeling to know BHS is under the capable leadership of Mr. Frank Hall and his office staff. I can see no reason why BHS should lose any momentum, but continue right on leading the way in all catagories — academics, athletics, and extracurricular activities. I wish for every student at Bearden High School this session a successful and happy year.

Your Friend
Wm R. Turner

Prom Court

The Queen

Assistant Principal Frank Hall placed the Queen's crown on King Tim Teague. Tim was crowned for Queen-elect Patty Prince who was unable to be at Prom. Patty was representing Bearden at Region III track competition. Patty would have been present for the crowning but she took a wrong turn and was in Virginia at the time.

Retiring Principal William R. Turner was named "Captain of Our Showboat" at his twenty-eighth prom.

On May 15, 1976, Bearden Seniors, Juniors, and their dates gathered for the biggest, most elaborate social event of the school year, Prom '76. The Juniors spent untold hours planning and working in an attempt to give the class of '76 the best prom ever. "Showboat" was the theme for decoration. The cafeteria was converted into "The Captain's Casino" complete with souvenir showboat centerpieces, gambling machines, and game tables. Shotgun provided the entertainment.

Graduation 1976

The James White Memorial Auditorium was the setting of the liberation of the Spirit of '76. Graduating exercises took place on June 7, 1976, at 8:00 p.m. The class of 1976 was presented by Mr. William Turner and accepted by Mr. James Newman.

Gun Smoke 76

Gun Smoke, the theme of Spirit Week, came true for Bulldog fans on the night of October 22, 1976. It was on that night the Bearden Bulldogs smoked the Holston Warriors in a celebrated Homecoming victory of 31-0. The half-time festivities consisted of introduction of the Senior Football players, crowning of Gwen Lott as the 1976 Homecoming Queen, and presentation of the Spirit Trophy to the senior and junior class presidents.

Left: Bruce Guthman scores. Under Left: Guthman scores again! Middle Right: Bulldogs plan to block the punt. Lower Right: Angie Yarbro, Executive Council President, presents the Spirit Trophy to Margaret Green, Senior Class President, and to Marti Winfrey, Junior Class President. Bottom Left: Senior football players are introduced during half-time. Center Left: The cars used in the half-time crowning of the homecoming queen were provided by Rodgers Cadillac. Center: The Bulldog fans enjoy the victory game.

The Spirit Week climaxed when the Spirit Trophy was awarded to the winner of the class competition. For the first time two classes tied: the Seniors and the Juniors each had 60 points. The areas of competition were expanded this year to create more school spirit and to ensure fair competition. There were seven areas of competition with the quality points for first place, second place, and third place being 10, 8, and 6 respectively . . . The categories were: attendance at the Big Event on Thursday, money raised by spirit links, decoration of homeroom doors, ticket sales to the Friday night game, attendance at the Friday night game, field decorations, and float decoration.

Vocational Building

Bearden High has a brand new 25,643 sq. feet vocational building for students planning a career in the subjects offered or for students who plan to enroll in college. The new program includes building trades, auto mechanics, electronics, ornamental horticulture, and child care.

The facility, 100% reimbursed by the State, cost $632,039.00. It was developed by the architectural firm of James Franklin, Architects, Planners, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, and built by Wood Brothers Construction Company of Knoxville.

The Executive Council was formed to complement the Student Council at Bearden High. It is composed of the presidents of all of the clubs recognized. Its purpose is to coordinate club activities and to help Student Council on long term projects. In order to meet this goal the council meets twice a month. Included in its many activities are Club Day and its assembly, Friendship Week, and a big calendar in front of the cafeteria every month listing school activities.

AFS Family

Coming to Bearden this year from Erlangen, Germany is Sabine Franzisra Hunger. Sabine is Bearden's AFS student for 1976-1977. With her host family, the Fraziers, Sabine learns about American life and customs.

Back Row: Thelma Ritchie, Grace, Sabine, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Frazier. Front Row: Marilyn and Glenn.

s is the chance for me to say THANK YOU to all the teachers l students at Bearden. All of you helped me so much during year here. When I first came, there were a lot of strange ngs I did not know how to handle but every time I needed o I knew I could count on you. After a while I really felt like rest of the students. This year has been a great experience me. I learned to know and like a lot of new things. I met ny people and I made many friends. This is also a chance to nk all the people who worked really hard to get the money t made it possible for me to come over here. I had a great r here and I wouldn't have missed it. I hope that Bearden be able to get another AFS student next year because I am e that you will help him just as you helped me. I'm sure he like Knoxville, Bearden, and all the people here like I do.
nough the time passed quickly- almost too fast - I am not sad that I have to leave because there is one thing I know sure; I'LL COME BACK!

The Esperanto Honor Society was founded by twelve men this fall to foster intellectual stimulation and spread the international language of Esperanto in order to promote peace and harmony. Since that time, membership has expanded to the current level of 35. In addition to the monthly club meetings, members frequently gather during 4th period to discuss the noble aspects of Esperanto. Besides purchasing Esperanto books for the library, the club sponsored a school-wide Esperanto Education Week and planned to send delegates to the National Esperanto Convention. The club motto is "Pli bona pano sen batero, ol kuko sen libero" or "Better bread without butter, than cake without freedom."

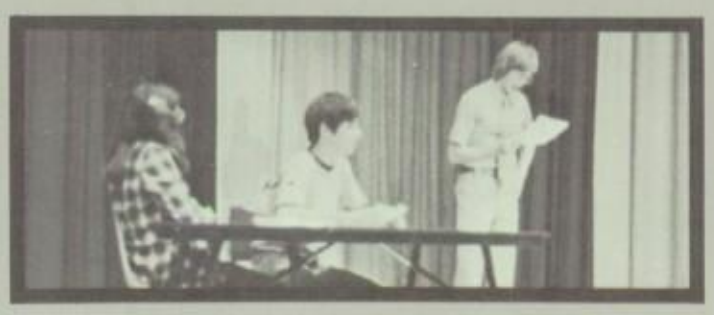
World Affairs



Keeping the student body informed and interested in current events is the aim of the World Affairs Club. Speakers are invited to express their opinions on a variety of controversial subjects at the monthly club meetings. In addition, the club members participate in a Model United Nations in Boone, N.C., and sponsor one for the surrounding Knoxville schools in the spring. Mrs. Hollow is the sponsor.

1976-1977 — Can anyone describe the year day by day — so packed with friends, work, good times, bad times, and memories. The Echo staff spent countless hours putting together the best "memory-catcher" we could — the 1977 edition of Echo. Yet without people outside of the Echo staff, this yearbook would not be possible. First I would like to thank Mr. Hall and the faculty for putting up with our countless interruptions and giving us their extra time. Special thanks go to Mrs. Morton, our sponsor, for always being there (even when it snowed) and always knowing what to do; Mr. Bailey for his great ideas, endless help, and for always stopping my worries; Mr. Graham, Tommy, Tim, Johnny, and good ole' Charlie (Jezebell, too) for coming and taking pictures, pictures, pictures — sometimes on very short notice, and the rest of Graham's staff; Henry Sack, Preston Haag, Edward Green, Tom Cocker, and Joe Johnston for donating their time and pictures to the annual; Dr. Seymour for fantastic pictures of football, track, cross country, and the band; the News Sentinel, Knoxville Journal, Kingston Four, NBC, Mrs. Margaret Boeth, and Bill Johnson for our "extra" pictures in the opening section and elsewhere in the book; Flick for being our middle-man for the Peter Frampton pictures; Sergeant Rankin Long; Happy Joe's for the chocolate-chip soda and the chocolate-butterscotch split; CeCe for helping out when we needed an honorary member; and Linda Gabbard for teaching me how to put together an annual.

Finally, I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to the staff: Mary, thanks for being a great and super organized assistant. Sharon, thanks so much for selling those ads, and for not complaining when I piled on all those extra pages. Elizabeth, thank you for your ideas and great work. Beth, you helped me so much just talking to me when the pressure started getting to me. Jan, I really appreciated your crazies and witty copy. Margaret, I don't know if I could have made it through those club pictures if you hadn't been there — you have a way of getting things done that I really admire. And Angie, thanks for your great quick layouts and for going with me day after day to sell those ads. Mark and Grady — you guys just don't know how much I appreciated you being on the staff. Not only did you do great jobs, but your fantastic personalities added more to the staff than you can imagine.

I sincerely hope that this annual will at least capture some of your special moments in 1977.

Thank you,

Margaret Lewis,
Editor

Good morning yesterday,
You wake up — and time has slipped away,
And suddenly it's hard to find the memories you left behind, remember . . .
